WHOLESALE GROCERY SALESMEN.

They Will Meet to Correct the Abuses of the Trade.

On Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7, a mass-meeting of the grocery salesmen traveling for St. Louis wholesale grocery houses will be held at the Lincoln in order to take measures to correct the trade abuses, a few of which are: Manufacturers selling direct to the retail trade; the promiscuous cutting of limited prices; selling too large a proportion of staple goods; the need of cheaper transportation and lower hotel rates for traveling salesmen; acrimonious competition and unfriendly feeling between salesmen and houses, resulting in unnecessary sacrifice of legitimate profits; and the competition to which competent and experienced salesmen are subjected from incompetent salesmen. For some time past the services of traveling salesmen in the wholesale grocery line have been growing less remunerative year by year, to the wholesale grocers as well as the salesmen, and the cause is attributed to the various reasons given above. The move, however, does not emanate from any wholesale house, but from the salesmen, and the meeting to be held will be largely attended, every salesman out in St. Louis houses having been given a three days' vacation to attend the meeting.

Will Travel by Wagon.

A party of North St. Louisans have had several meetings recently in connection with a contemplated trip to the World's Fair in 1893. The party will go by wagon, the old-fashioned "prairie schooner" style being decided on. A camping outfit and a band of music will be among the appointments of the unique trip. One of the best caterers will be engaged to care for the wants of the inner mob. So far about fifteen have engaged for the trip, but it is expected that before the time all of two hundred of the Turners will join. Dr. Edw. Borch has charge of the details.

No Strike at the Fair Grounds.
The management of the Fair Grounds deny that there has been any strike among the waiters employed there. They state that all the waiters who were at the Jockey Club House Saturday morning were engaged for the day and night and are still at work. No demands have been made by them. It is alleged that there has been no trouble of any kind with the men to give rise to the reported strike.

Off for Europe.

Mr. Wm. Link, Cashier of the City Collector's office, left for Europe this morning on a visit to his mother who lives near Coblenz, Germany, and whom he has not seen for twenty six years. Mr. Link's wife and children will accompany him as far as New York. He expects to be away a couple of months. Mr. Link was formerly a newspaper reporter and connected with the German press of this city.

When Traveling.
Whether on pleasure bent, or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cents and 10 bottles by all leading druggists.

Cut His Son-in-Law.
Thomas McLaughlin and his father-in-law, Maurice Lyons, quarreled by book beat, renewed an old family quarrel last evening with serious results. Lyons cut his son-in-law several times. Several muscles in McLaughlin's right arm were severed. Both men were locked up at the Third District station.

MAY GET CALDWELL.

St. Louis Has Hopes of Engaging America's Greatest Starter.

CLEM CLEVELING TO OFFICIATE AT THE FLAG IN THE MEANTIME.

Caldwell Has Not Yet Been Heard From
But an Answer Is Expected—Causes for Walker's Failure—The Browns Defeat Washington—Horses Now at Lexington—Sporting and Ball Gossip.

The Fair Grounds Club has dispensed with the services of Starter Walker, who officiated on Saturday, and has engaged temporarily the services of Clem Cleveling, who has of late been making quite a success of starting runners, although most of his experience has, like that of Walker, been with the trotters.

The starter question is becoming a very serious one of late, as there are far more races going on than there are good experienced men to start them. Walker's starting on Saturday was very bad, but it was not all his fault, as there is no doubt that the jockeys had made up their minds not to have him, and were behaving accordingly. Walker did not call them by the number they wore on their arms, which brought down upon him the further disfavor of the boys. That the jockeys and most of the book-making, race-playing fraternity want Jack

Starter Clem Cleveling.
Chin there can be no doubt, and it is safe to say that no other starter will be entirely successful unless he be either Caldwell or Sheridan or one of the old-timers, who are up to all the tricks of the jockeys, and are feared by them. Jack Chin, the most popular candidate with the fraternity, is now starting at Lexington, where he went direct from the East side, where he was in charge from the beginning of the races until the closing day. The man best liked by the Fair Grounds officials, and the one who will probably be secured, is J. F. Caldwell, the Guttenberg starter, who is at present on furlough, but who, it is understood, can come here and serve without violating his agreement with Guttenberg, and who can, in any event, come after the 15th of this month, as the track there then closes under the agreement with the Board of Control.

President Wells has telegraphed to Caldwell asking him to serve, and an answer is expected from him by tomorrow. The starter who will serve from to-day on until one of the regulars can be secured is a St. Louis boy who has been an ardent supporter of horse racing all his life. He was very active in keeping up the various trotting clubs organized here and has acted as starter in a great many trotting races on the South Side track here. He is a man of even temper, however, and cool enough to handle his own with the unruly riders at the Fair Grounds track. Until the closing of the East side he acted as associate judge. To-day's work will be a fair test as there are six races of ten and eleven entries each, which will give him ample opportunity to try his hand on a grand scale.

The prospects for the races in the future are of the best, and new horses are constantly arriving, among them are the gamblers string which got in yesterday. In the auction pool Saturday night the horses sold freely, and everything points to a lively spring meeting.

Cleveling Wells said to-day: "I guess Cleveling can handle the start all right, as he knows all the jockeys and they seem to like him, and with a good assist he will succeed. Walker failed for a variety of reasons many of them not his fault."

I have telegraphed to Caldwell, but have not heard from him yet and do not know that my message reached him.

Cleaning Time
—and it's a time of trouble and much work for unbelieving women. Because their grandmothers worked hard then and made things uncomfortable, they can't believe that there's any better way.
Other women can—millions of them. They use Pearline, and "take it easy." They're spared the hard work, get through in half the time, and save the wear and tear that's made by useless scouring and scrubbing. Paint, glass, marble, wood-work, carpets, hangings, everything that will "wash" at all, is cleaned or washed easily and safely with Pearline.
Use Pearline, and you won't mind the trials of house-cleaning. You can laugh at them. But if you don't use Pearline, wiser women will laugh at you.

Send Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if it Back send it back, 306 JAMES PYLE, New York.

ATHLETICS.
The members of the Paulian Athletic Club of the Christian Brothers' College, who have been selected to take part in the intercollegiate contests to be held at Champaign, Ill., on the 18th inst., have been in active training for the past two weeks under the direction of Trainer John Leahy. Mr. Leahy is confident in the ability of his men, and says that barring mishaps they will make a good showing. Mr. Leahy, who is also secretary of the club, has written to the following men who will compete: W. G. Smith and J. L. Lister, both of the varsity; James Dillon, the 120 yards hurdle and 220 yards run; W. Goodwell Martin, a mile runner; and Charles J. Sullivan, a 100 yards dasher. The Ashland Oaks, which has for the past five years been one of the best series of races in the West, will have some very fine horses and starters. So far Strathmair is probably the most promising that has shown. Harry and Filleau are also well thought of and the indications are that it will be one of the most sensational races of the meeting.

BASE BALL.
The most hotly contested base ball game witnessed here this season was played at Sportsman's Park yesterday in the presence of some 6,000 persons. The contest besides being interesting on account of the desperate manner in which both clubs endeavored to win, was characterized by the worst exhibition of alleged umpiring ever seen in this city. McCrum, who was imported here from New York to replace Mahoney the regularly scheduled official, until he recovered from an attack of illness which has laid him up the past week, again officiated and demonstrated thoroughly to everyone that he has no qualifications whatsoever for umpiring a base ball contest. McCrum acquired his experience, at least in the matter of securing him an appointment as a substitute, while umpiring in amateur circles at his home in New York. His professional career opened Friday when he umpired in the opening Boston-Browns game. He was a sign of things to come, especially the opposing pitchers, and the result was amusing, to say the least. The game was a close one, with the exception of Hoy, disputed McCrum's decision and argued the matter with line up and, assisted by the crowd, discuss the subject. The fight was the price and the mission, especially when Crooks, Werden and Stricker were hot. The Senators, especially Pat Donohue, Ted Larkin, Dan Richardson and Jack Millan, made plenty of noise. Hoy, the deaf mute, caused lots of amusement while endeavoring to explain to McCrum what he thought of him. Al together, the most peculiar game ever seen in this city. The Browns registered a victory in the contest, and the Senators were engaged in a double, which Carroll placed in left field. He scored a man engaged in the contest, the scratch hit right. In the fifth Stricker's hit and Crooks' high fly, which got away from Duffee and landed in the right field seats, netted two runs, and the Browns won the game in the ninth on Dwyer's drive into center, which Hoy failed to capture, the result of which was that the redheaded pitcher scored. Crooks followed with a single. Carroll advanced him to second with another one and he scored on
